Dear HGF members and Newsletter readers,

HGF Spring Workshop 2023
Last week we were, after quite some time, again able to meet in person at the HGF workshop in Belgium. With a very nice and varied program, consisting of a tour through the Innovation Facilities of Puratos, a summary of the results of the EU project InnoFoodAfrica on April 26, followed by an introductory workshop on the HealthFerm project on April 27. The presentations will be made available on the HGF website at your personal login.

LinkedIn page Healthgrain Forum
May be good to know that for HealthGrain Forum, Milica Vidosavljevic has built a HealthGrain Forum page that is easy to share with your LinkedIn network. Information about HGF activities and related content is posted there on a very regular basis to expose HGF outside our existing network to interest others for HGF activities. After all, cereals and grains are a significant contribution to diets globally and HGF envisions that whole grain and high fibre grain-based foods assist consumers in health maintenance worldwide, help reduce health care costs and provide added value for companies in the production chain from farm to fork. Would be great if you could help to expand our network with your links.

HealthFerm

Also, herewith some information on the Training & Capacity building activities HGF is responsible for with the HealthFerm project. On June 15, from 10:30-12:00, a webinar on fermented cereals and pulses in relation to nutrition and health with Prof. Kristin Verbeke and Prof. Rikard Landberg will be held. More information will follow soon.

HGF Autumn Workshop 2023
The HGF Board aims to organize the next Autumn workshop in connection either to the EFFoST conference in Valencia or the FENS conference in Belgrade. On a very short notice (preferably before May 9) we would like to receive your preferences with respect to what congress the Board should connect with.

HGF Board candidatures

Please be aware that we have open Board position(s) for Academic affiliate(s). Candidatures are welcome! At the Autumn GA more Board member positions will have to be voted (Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Communication Manager).
