Dear HGF members and Newsletter readers,

HGF Session at the EFFoST conference

We are pleased to announce that HGF will organize a Session at the upcoming EFFoST conference on November 6-8 in Valencia: "From innovation to product development gaining consumer acceptability – building sustainability in food system". During this session, scheduled for November 7th from 16.30h to 18.30h, Jan de Vries and Silvia Folloni will introduce following speakers: Kaisu Riihinen (VTT, Finland), Fabio Tucillo (University of Helsinki, Finland), Kerstin Burseg (GoodMills Innovation GmbH, Germany) and Peter Shewry (Rothamsted Research, UK). This session is a replacement of our yearly autumn workshop. Therefore, a reduced conference fee of €726,- (incl. VAT) is negotiated for HGF members. Please contact office@healthgrain.org in case of interest! The event offers a range of interesting topics and good opportunities for networking. Join us there! The HGF Autumn General Assembly will be organized as virtual meeting on December 11. A separate invitation has been sent out.

HealthFerm

As responsible for the project's Training & Capacity building activities, HGF is organizing and moderating two sessions during the EFFoST conference in Valencia with other 4 EU projects, focusing on fermentation processes: "Microbes4SustainableFoods – Designing future fermented foods" All details here.

HGF Board candidatures

Please be aware that we have open Board position(s) for Academic affiliate(s). Candidatures are welcome! At the Autumn GA more Board member positions will have to be voted (Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Communication Manager).

On behalf of the HGF Board
